Instructions for Form WRC Worker Retraining Tax Credit Application

General Information

The Worker Retraining Tax Credit may be claimed by employers who provide qualifying retraining for their employees through noncredit classes or through an apprenticeship agreement approved by the Virginia Jobs Investment Program, Virginia Economic Development Partnership (VEDP). Qualifying apprenticeship programs may include credit and noncredit classes. The credit is equal to:

- 30% of all training costs for qualified employees who attend Virginia community colleges.
- the actual costs up to $200 ($300 if the eligible worker retraining includes retraining in a STEM or STEAM discipline) per qualified employee annually for those employees who attend private schools.

The total retraining credits granted to all employers is limited to $2,500,000 for each year. If the total qualifying credits exceed this amount, the credit will be prorated. Employers must apply for their share of the available credit by filing Form WRC with the VEDP or Department of Taxation, as applicable, to determine their proportionate share of the credit. Notification of the authorized credit amount must be received before the credit may be claimed on the tax return.

The credit is allowable against the individual income tax, estate and trust income tax, corporation income tax, bank franchise tax, and taxes imposed upon insurance companies and utility companies (under Va. Code §§ 58.1-2501 et seq. and 58.1-2626 et seq.). This credit is nonrefundable, but excess credit may be carried forward for the next 3 taxable years. No credit can be carried back to a preceding taxable year.

Process Overview For Claiming This Credit

Claiming this credit takes the following 3-step process. Definitions used to qualify training are after Step 3.

Step 1: Determine Eligibility of Courses or Apprenticeship Programs for Credit

Noncredit Courses: Employers seeking this credit will have retrained employees through noncredit courses. To determine if the training will qualify for this credit, complete Parts I and II, and Schedule 1 of Form WRC and send it to Virginia Jobs Investment Program, Virginia Economic Development Partnership, 901 East Byrd Street Richmond, VA 23219. For questions, call (804) 545-5706. VEDP will determine if the course qualifies as eligible retraining. VEDP will forward this determination to the Department of Taxation for Step 2.

Apprenticeship Programs: Employers seeking this credit will have retrained employees in a Virginia Apprenticeship Council approved program under the Voluntary Apprenticeship Act. For program information, call Department of Labor and Industry at (804) 786-8009.

File Form WRC, completing Parts I and III and Schedule 2 (see Exception below), with the Department of Taxation, Tax Credit Unit, P. O. Box 715, Richmond, VA 23218-0715, to determine program applicability and authorized credit.

EXCEPTION: If applying for retraining credits for noncredit courses and an apprenticeship program, complete all of Form WRC and file it with VEDP. After processing Schedule 1, VEDP will send Form WRC to the Department of Taxation.

Step 2: Requests for Additional Information and Notification of Authorized Credit

Additional information: If the Virginia Economic Development Partnership or the Department of Taxation needs additional information they will contact you by May 1 and you will have until May 15 to respond. If you have not received acknowledgment of your application from the Department of Taxation by May 31 please call (804) 786-2992.

The Department of Taxation will issue the credit by June 30. If you have not received your credit certification by July 15, please call (804) 786-2992.

Extension of time for filing: If the tax return upon which this credit will be claimed is due on or before May 1, you may need to file an automatic extension payment for any tax due or file an amended return upon receipt of the credit information.

Step 3: Claim Worker Retraining Tax Credit on Your Return

After receiving notification of authorized credit, you may claim the credit on the applicable Virginia tax return. See the tax return instructions for computation and enclosure details.

Definitions

Eligible Worker Retraining means the retraining of a qualified employee that promotes economic development. Retraining of a qualified employee will promote economic development when the employment brings new income into Virginia, stimulates additional employment, improves existing processes, products or services, or is the basis for further economic growth. The retraining can be accomplished through:

- (i) noncredit courses at any Virginia community college or a private school or
- (ii) worker retraining programs undertaken through an apprenticeship agreement approved by the Virginia Apprenticeship Council.

Noncredit Courses include, but are not limited to:

- specific job-related skills/studies;
- computer training due to process or equipment change of entry-level computer skills (ongoing computer software upgrades are not included);
- continuous improvements such as team building and quality training;
- management and supervisory training;
- safety and environmental training programs; and
- credit or noncredit approved apprenticeship courses.

Qualified Employee means an employee who works in a full-time position requiring a minimum of 1,680 hours in the normal year of the employer's operation and standard fringe benefits are offered to the employee. Employees eligible to take credit or noncredit courses undertaken through a registered apprenticeship agreement must be employed in a full-time position requiring a minimum of 1,924 hours in the normal year of the employer's operation unless otherwise approved by the Virginia Apprenticeship Council. A qualified employee shall not be a spouse, child, grandchild, parent or sibling of an employer, or in the case of a corporation, an individual that owns, directly or indirectly, 5% or more of the corporation's stock. Employees in seasonal or temporary positions are not qualified for this program.

Retraining means an upgrade in training for existing employees, which is identified as essential to the production or distribution of a product, rendering services or retraining provided through an apprenticeship agreement approved by the Virginia Apprenticeship Council.

Standard Fringe Benefits means the benefits that a particular employer offers to its full-time employees.

STEM or STEAM discipline means a science, technology, engineering, mathematics, or applied mathematics related discipline as determined by the VEDP in consultation with the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The term also includes a health-care related discipline.

Training Costs means instruction, instructional materials, facilities fees and other costs determined to be necessary to the delivery of the training. Trainee wages and curriculum development costs are not covered.

Instructions For Completing Form WRC

When completing Form WRC, remember that claiming the credit is a multi-step process. Complete Form WRC and the required schedules using the definitions listed earlier in these instructions. To assist you in completing Schedules 1 and 2 correctly, review these definitions: Eligible worker retraining, qualified employee, noncredit courses, retraining, standard fringe benefits and training costs.

Part I - Description of Business Activities

Enter the principal activity of the business.

Part II - Credit Based on Noncredit Courses From a Community College or Private School

Credit will be granted for retraining through noncredit courses approved by the VEDP.

Complete Schedule 1 (Form WRC). If additional space is needed, enclose a separate page. Complete a separate Schedule 1 for each course for which the credits are requested. Enter the total number of courses and total credit requested for training costs for approved courses in the space provided in Part II of the Form WRC.

Part III - Credit Based on Apprenticeship Programs

Credit will be granted for apprenticeship programs (approved by the Virginia Apprenticeship Council through the Virginia Department of Labor and Industry) which meet the qualifications for this credit. See the definitions provided earlier in these instructions, before completing this section.

Complete Schedule 2 (Form WRC).

- If you have more than one school, then use a separate Schedule 2 for each school.
- Enter the student names in alphabetical order.
- If including additional summary worksheets, submit one worksheet for each school and complete all fields as listed on Schedule 2 (list student names in alphabetical order, school name, course name, etc.).
- Organize each school in a separate folder with Form WRC, Schedule 2, invoices, Labor Department Apprenticeship Form and copies of E-checks or canceled checks.

See the definitions listed in these instructions before completing Schedule 2 to ensure that the training costs and employees listed qualify for the credit.
